

The Torrance Symphony

Conducted by
Frank Paul Fetta

Presents

“The Torrance Centennial Celebration”

Saturday
January 21, 2012

8:00 p.m.

Featuring

Beiyao Ji, Piano Soloist

2011 Young Artist Concerto Competition Winner

Program includes

Russian Dance from Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite #1
Dvorak's Symphony #9 (The New World Symphony)
Rachmaninoff Concerto #3, Beiyao Ji, Piano Soloist

James Armstrong Theatre - Torrance Cultural Arts Center
3330 Civic Center Drive - Torrance - 90503

This is the 2nd of 4 concerts at the Armstrong Theatre for the Torrance Symphony 2010 -2011 season.

Tickets are $12.50 (including the $2.50 box office service charge) and can be purchased at the Armstrong box office (call 310-781-7171). Purchase tickets early as seats are limited. ("First come-1st served" basis.)

Free Admission for Friends of the Symphony Membership. No additional ticket need be purchased.
Pick up free ticket at the membership door. Being a member means - admitted early at 7 p.m. to listen to Maestro Fetta's entertaining pre-concert lecture about the evening's program and being invited to an afterglow immediately following the concert in the Green Room. New members are always welcome to join.

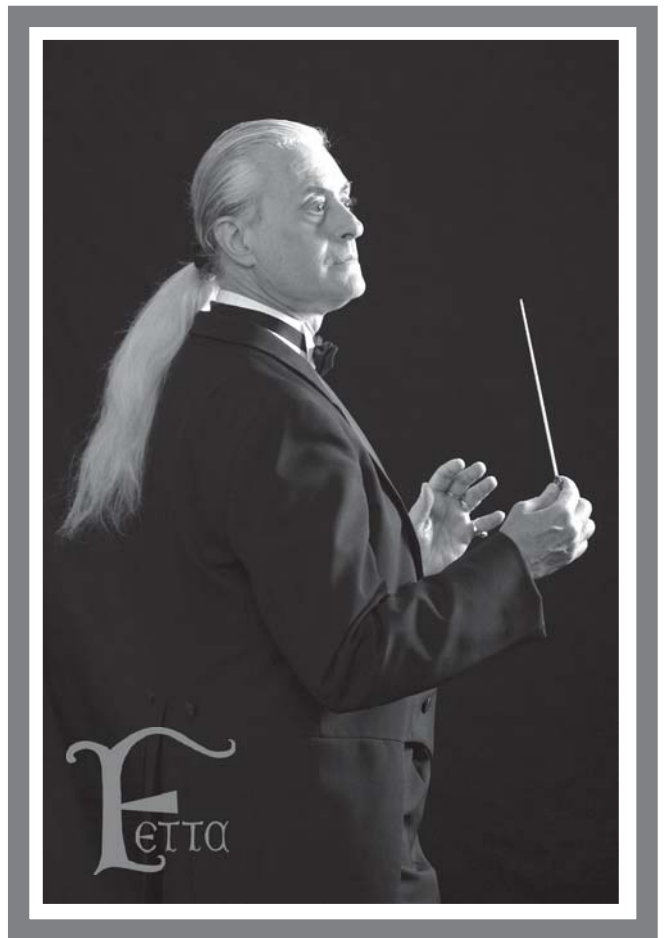

Photo by Joey Ikemoto

Season's Symphony Concert dates: March 10, 2012; June 16, 2012; FUNdraisers on February 25, 2012 and May 19, 2012

For more information call: (310) 373-2442 or visit www.torrancesymphony.org

Program selections subject to change